

©Julie Lemberger, 2002

Join Barbara Mahler as she presents four short dances including her newest solo "TAPESTRY", a haunting work to the soulful sounds of cellist Erik Friedlander that was first presented at Green Space and Dixon Place December 2011; "The Ground Underneath" exploring how tension builds within the ritual, performed by guest artist Rebecca Alson-Milkman and accompanied by sounds from the Brazilian Rainforest; "The Whispering Pages" that premiered in NYC as part of 92Y's SUNDAYS AT THREE series in 2003 and is accompanied by the extraordinary voices of the Platters; and duet "Times Two" with dancers Jamie Chandler and Jamie Graham. Mahler's new dances illustrate her dynamic use of time and space, juxtaposed with her interest in spareness. Choreographers Rachel Thorne Germond, Valerie Green, Katherine Howard, Leslie Satin and David Rafael Botana join Mahler on the program with a diversity of artistic vision. The afternoon will be a vibrant Tapestry of movement, sound and aesthetic viewpoints.

Sun, Feb 12, 2012, 3 pm, $10

92Y Buttenwieser Hall

TICKETS: 92Y.org/Dance or call 212.415.5500 or visit the 92Y Box Office

92nd Street Y ♦ School of the Arts ♦ Harkness Dance Center ♦ 1395 Lexington Ave at 92nd Street
92Y.org/Dance ♦ (P) 212.415.5552 ♦ (F) 212.415.5549